

~~SECRET~~Egypt

continued support for national liberation movement
~~because of~~ Nasr's ~~nationalist~~ authoritative policy, and the fact that political demonstrations are forbidden in Egypt, there is little likelihood the exhortations of foreign Communist parties (Italy, Syria, etc.) ~~that~~ against the regime in Egypt

~~that~~ the Egyptian CP will undertake violent action in the near future.

It is possible that some ~~of~~ Egyptian Communists who received elementary military training during or after the Suez crisis may be infiltrated into

~~a Communist element calling itself the Egyptian Communist Party (Bolshevik) emerged in January 1958~~

~~nearby Arab states such as Jordan or Saudi Arabia. In the event of local~~ or general political crises, ~~and as agents of non-Communist organizations~~ Communist elements are considered capable of provoking or

~~exploiting anti-Western demonstrations in which and violence directed against official US installations and leading~~

~~carry out acts of sabotage to weaken the positions of western-oriented~~

~~on governments~~ local figures could be carried out.

against NKR
~~and the possibility of violent action inspired by this group~~
~~denouncing~~ and has denounced NKR as a ~~tool~~ instrument of the imperialism of the group ~~membership and~~ ~~international ties (if any) have not been identified.~~ international ties (if any) have not been identified.

Cannot be dismissed.

~~SECRET~~